CHARLESTON, S.C. – On Saturday, November 15, Charleston's Oldest Brewery will introduce Charleston's Newest Novel, while two of the Holy City's finest singer/songwriters will collaborate on stage for the first time.

From 7-9 p.m., Palmetto Brewery will host a book signing for The College Chronicles: Freshman Milestones, written by Charleston Author Kelly Owen, and which recently published to reader acclaim and a sold-out launch party.

The Huger Street Brewery, which is written into Owen's book, will also welcome John Shields and Keon Masters onto its new Loading Dock Stage. Both former students of Owen's, they also composed songs connected to the novel. There will be a variety of beers on tap in the brewery's new Tasting Room, while author-signed books will be available to purchase for $15. Anyone who buys a book will be entered into a drawing to win an ultimate "college care package," designed for those that appreciate the classic student lifestyle.

Boogie Benton of Boogie's Barbeque Food Truck will also be serving ribs, wings, and his signature Dirty Bird sandwich: ground turkey and pork sausage wrapped in bacon, smoked, sliced, and served on a bun with arugula, jalapenos, tomato, and pimento cheese.
